

K-Love radio serves as a valuable commodity in our local community. The loss of K-Love radio would be devastating to our youth residents who need and desire contemporary christian music in place of foul-mouthed music and DJ's found on the majority of signal on the radio today. K-Love is of vital interest to our local listening community by providing honest news not heard elsewhere and listing local family-oriented events that help build good moral and ethical character.